Each One! Bless One!

* * * * *

Jesus is coming back soon for His church, and He will recognize them because they will look like royalty; their deeds will be that of a people who are a royal priesthood.

“Once, having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, “The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, nor will people say, ‘Here it is,’ or ‘There it is,’ because the kingdom of God is within you.” Luke 17:20-21 (KJ)

A Kingdom Mind. We often find throughout the four gospels incidences where the Pharisees would question Jesus concerning things they understood and things He taught. Jesus being who He is, would always know their hearts and knew they were not asking for the learning enjoyment, but they wanted to find anything they could to try to refute what He said and trap Him into contradicting Himself.

“But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go.” Matthew 23:13 (KJ)

The Pharisees teachings were according to the law and not the Word of God. Jesus was not accepted by the Pharisees as the Son of God and therefore they could not conceive the notion that He was with God in the beginning and that He was the Word made flesh. The Pharisees were known as the people who were loyal to God. It's extremely ironic in view of the fact that they made themselves the most bitter, and deadly, opponents of Jesus Christ and His message. They were the ones loved by God, but really knew very little about his Son Jesus, the Christ.

Jesus said that the Kingdom of God will not come with anything that you can watch for or merely take note of, but the Kingdom is within you. The Kingdom is within your heart. It is not a tangible building, it is not a stone mansion or castle; it has to come within the hearts of man, the men that love the Lord and follow His teachings. People cannot say that it has arrived, because they will not be able to touch it or see it with the natural eye, they shall be able to recognize it in actions and deeds.

When Jesus gave the disciples the model prayer that we call the Lord's prayer, he said thy kingdom comes, thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. When Jesus returns to establish His Kingdom; it will be here on earth, in the hearts of His followers, His bride, His church. This concept will exist in the form of a kingdom mindset. Man will be able to live and exist holy and righteous here on earth and Jesus will be reigning King.

For the Kingdom of God is not of the natural, it is of the supernatural. It cannot be corrupted by man, smeared and tainted by his filth and evil, it is in the hearts of man. For God knows all of us, and He sees the things of the heart. That is where His Kingdom resides. For Jesus said, "If you abide in Me, if you remain in Me, and My word abide in you, then you shall ask what you will and you shall receive it." He also said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added to you."

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you," Matthew 6:33 (KJ)

All these things are the things that the carnal man needs and desires. But because the Kingdom resides in man, these things are given because of God's grace and mercies. The Kingdom came with Jesus Christ. He brought the Kingdom with Him because of His royal status. He is the Lord of Lords, the King of Kings, and where the King of Kings goes, the Kingdom is established. When we believe on the only begotten Son of God, who is Jesus Christ, we receive Him in our hearts, and all that comes along with Him. He lives in our hearts and where He lives is called His Kingdom.

Jesus is coming back soon for His church, and He will recognize them because they will look like royalty; their deeds will be that of a people who are a royal priesthood. He will know because they will display a kingdom mindset. He is coming back like a thief in the night, which means only the righteous will see Him. At His second coming, all will see and behold His glory, that is when every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that He is Lord over His Kingdom on earth.
