*Let us commit ourselves to encourage one another.
Our God is an Encourager, so let us also follow Him in this.*

Acts 15:32, "Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers." ACTS 15:32

"We sent Timothy, who is our brother and God's fellow worker in spreading the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith," 1 THESSALONIANS 3:2

Encourage one another. Today's Rhema. 14 August 2010. Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, loving greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Today let us meditate about the importance of encouraging one another in these last days of trials and persecutions. The body of our Lord Jesus Christ needs today encouraging people. Acts 28:15, "The brothers there had heard that we were coming, and they traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. At the sight of these men Paul thanked God and was encouraged."

Here, we read even the great Apostle Paul who was very much determined to serve the Lord in different adverse situations was encouraged by seeing the brothers as in Acts 28:15, "The brothers there had heard that we were coming, and they traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. At the sight of these men Paul thanked God and was encouraged." Because of this timely encouragement they gave him by their physical presence, he took a house for rent and boldly served the Lord for another two more years in that place as in Acts 28:30 & 31.

For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. Boldly and without hindrance he preached the Kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ. Let us cause one another to serve God very boldly in these last days by constantly encouraging one another. – Apostle Paul could spread the Gospel because of the monetary help he got as in Romans 15:24, “whenever I journey to Spain, I shall come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while.” – Romans 15:27, “They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings.”

Let us commit ourselves to encourage one another: Our god is an encourager so let us also follow this from Him as in Psalms 10:17, “You hear, O LORD, the desire of the afflicted; you encourage them, and you listen to their cry.”

Commitment Prayer: Lord, help me to commit myself as an instrument to encourage the suffering body of the lord Jesus Christ with my kind positive words, with my physical presence and with all the gifts what all I can give in the right time to bail them out of their sufferings. So, that who are called to work for you will keep on do their work until you call them home. I ask this prayer in the name of our lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
