When it comes time for Jesus to send the Angels to collect the tares, do you think that the “tares” are going to sit around playing a child’s game (Patty Cake) before the Angels take them to their eternal punishment? No.

“Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

The Mystery of the Wheat and the Tares – 7. (Matthew 13:24-30) Please read Part One, 15 October 2008. Please touch your eyes and ask Christ to allow you to see and understand what you are about to read and allow the Holy Spirit to teach you what it all means. Listen carefully as the antichrist does not want you to know or understand this information.

Let me cut to the chase because I am tired and want to get this devotional to you today. This devotional series is about the TARES. The tares are going to be taken away, separated from the WHEAT. The tares represent evil, which in this devotional series suggests, strongly suggests that they are dressed in sheep's clothing, dressed to sound like, to look like, to act like and to be a "splitting image" of a Christian—in order to be able to get true Christians to believe they are Christian as well.

There are three concepts of which to be mindful when considering tares in the church environment:

- 1) Tares are the enemy standing right beside you.
- 2) Tares are like moths drawn to a flame.
- 3) Tares are not going to sit passively at the end.

ENEMY STANDING BESIDE YOU

This tare is probably originally a Christian person who is now in bondage to the unclean spirit, or unclean spirits. Note: people in bondage do not know they are in bondage. Only now and then will they get an opportunity to cry out for help from within their vessel in which they are trapped.

This tare, once a Christian or never was a Christian or was a follower of satan or following orders from the antichrist to infiltrate the church. This is a standard and normally the initial form of military attack—send in the SPIES. The spies have to look like the people they are spying on. They have to act like the people they are spying on; essentially they have to be the people they are spying on—the people they are preying on, the people they are planning to hurt, the people they are seeking to hold back. The same people who they are acting like are the very same people they are planning to destroy... at least initially when they first come into the church battlefield. Note: the battlefield is at church, at work, at school, at play, and definitely will visit your home.

“He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.” Matthew 13:28-30 (KJ)

LIKE A MOTH TO A FLAME

Remember, tares—what we are really talking about here is not the people but the unclean spirits, the imps, the demons, spiritual wickedness, powers, and principalities which inhabit people. (Note: No unclean spirit every had an opportunity to enter into Jesus because He had the Spirit of God (Christ) in Him which would not, does not, and will not allow such a thing.) So with this in mind—tares as evil spirits—know that they were not evil all the time (Note: I am talking here about those evil things that were with God in Heaven that at the time were not evil. I am not talking here about things that were created from the evil of mankind nor the things created from evil nor am I talking about things created from mankind and evil together.) I am talking about angels and such which were kicked out of Heaven after having been living there for more than what we would call any number of eternities.

The unclean spirits were with our Heavenly Father for more time than we can imagine. They were doing God's Will, they were worshipping God night and day, they were in a blissful state, what can I say, they were in Heaven. So what is the point? The point is that these unclean spirits, these fallen angels long to be with God—they long for the things of God—they long for the "Breath" of God. They long for the "Touch" of God. They long for the "Anointing" of God. They long for a "Word" from God.

Sure there is enmity between the woman and unclean spirits, but unclean spirits are drawn to the things of Father God, more correctly, they are drawn to the Light of our Heavenly Father which shines within us. Sure they will not show they enjoy being in church while around other unclean spirits, but remember, there is no unity nor loyalty in unclean spirit ranks.
