Four Natures of Humankind:

THE DIVINE NATURE IS THAT WHICH WE ARE TO ASPIRE TO BE NOW
AFTER 2,000+ YEARS OF ATTEMPTING TO FOLLOW THE DIVINE EXAMPLE OF JESUS CHRIST OF NAZARETH.

NATURAL

Little to no knowledge of God, Jesus, or the Holy Ghost.

Not knowing the Bible nor the Teachings of The Messiah.

Decisions are made without knowing that God should be a part of decision-making.

Behavior is self-preservation, selfish gain, survival instincts, helping others is selfish will not God's Will.

CARNAL

Knowledge of God, Jesus, and the Holy Ghost.

Knowing the Teachings of the Bible and The Messiah.

Decisions are made which knowingly are against the Will of God. Logic and self-serving choices are made.

Reprobate behavior: making the same sins (mistakes) over and over again.

SPIRITUAL

Knowledge of God, Jesus, and the Holy Ghost and God's Heavenly Family and your place in His Family.

Knowing and attempting to follow the Teachings of The Messiah.

Decisions are made in concert with God's Will.

Mistakes (sins) may happen but they are not habitual nor often; knowing Jesus bears the sin.

Behavior is emulating that of Christ Jesus

DIVINE

The Nature of Christ Jesus exhibited while He walked the earth. Attempts to be like Jesus.

Speak what Jesus gives to speak.

Allows The Father to perform or attempt miracles, signs, wonders, or healings through them.

Behavior is godly, divine, and as The Father; no sin like Jesus.
