Exclaim and proclaim a blessing with the words you use in the presence of others.

“For by thy words thou shalt be justified,
and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.”

Matthew 12:37

Lord's Name in Vain. Part Three. Read Part One, 10 January 2012. Again, I say, “Take not the Lord's name in vain.” Father please bless the understanding of the reader of the words they are about to read in the name of Christ Jesus so they will not take your name or what they believe to be your name in vain. Prepare us for the Coming Messiah. Amen. (Continuing) “Lord God Almighty!” is an expression you may hear someone say. It is an exclamation used to express one's excitement, amazement, or disbelief in what was just said or just seen. This expression and those like it are buried in the psyche of many Christians who do not believe it is taking the Lord's name in vain—but it is. Check yourself after you say it, to understand whether the spiritual place you are in when you say it, is worldly, carnal, holy, or ungodly.

You may be one of those smart Christians who have studied enough and have listened to the Lord enough and have read their Bibles enough to know that Lord or God is not the name of our Heavenly Father. Yahweh, El Shaddai, Yahshua, and Yeshua are some true names of our Father, our Brother, our Savior. (Mark 12:29) “So what is the problem with me saying it then?” Here lies the problem. You believe in your heart that the word God and Lord are the names of the Father. You believe when you use those words you are using them as an expression of Father God. That is the problem. You use them thinking they are Yahweh's name. Your belief has taken you to a place of vanity.

BLESS OTHERS BY PROPERLY USING THE NAME OF THE LORD
