To train up children effectively, be more committed to the things of God.

“Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled. In everything set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.”

TITUS 2:6-8

How To Raise Children Effectively – 1. In the church today, a lot of the responsibilities of the fathers have been inadvertently shifted to the mothers. Though the fathers blame this on technology, job or business that take them out of home for too long just so they may provide for their family. Not knowing that too much pressure is placed on the mothers who sometimes breakdown or simply do not know how to do it because God, in His infinite wisdom joined the two parents together so that your conjugal role can be balanced. Worse is when both parents leave for work leaving the young children at the mercy of the house-help and the unmonitored watching of television and other vices.

God's pattern of raising children is simply clear. Proverbs 22:6. Parents have the responsibility of training up their children. Training entails more than teaching or giving instruction. It also means you have to be an example in showing the child how to do what you are saying. These take time and patience much at it means you know yourself know what to do and how to do it, i.e. you have been disciplined as a father.

To train up children effectively, fathers be more committed to the things of God. Godly foundation is love in the home. Ephesians 5:1, Titus 2:5. Since you can't give what you don't have, fathers should endeavor to:

- 1- Attend bible study classes
- 2- Prayer meetings
- 3- Serve in the house of God
- 4- Develop personal devotion with the Lord
- 5- Personal relationship with the Word and Holy Spirit
- 6 -Develop Christian character
- 7- Lead his family at the family altar
