Global Day of Prayer. Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ. This Sunday, May 31, 2009 is the Global Day of Prayer. As the nations of the world unite in prayer, we want to set aside some time on Sunday, whether it is at church, a prayer group or in your home to see God move in the nations. Below are some prayer points that you can use as a guide for the Global Day of Prayer.

Prayer Points for the Economy

Pray For:

God is in the midst of shaking all that can be shaken HAGGAI 2:6-7. In the midst of it all - my primary prayer is that God's people will become aware and alerted to what the Lord is doing and how to profit from it.

I expect a new round of mortgage fiascos to hit the economy over the next few years, possibly starting this fall. Alt A's and Option ARM mortgages will exceed (at least in terms of raw numbers) what the subprimes did.

Pray that God's people will:

- Develop alternative sources of income.
- Find creative and inventive new ways to conduct and establish business not based upon conventional thinking (no more business as usual!)
- Explore new methods of reaping a harvest due to changing economic conditions.
- Abandon old patterns of thinking based upon the old norms of doing business (new wineskins).
- Draw closer to God - in Him are the answers we need.
- Create new methods of financing business, ministry and new economic systems for the Kingdom.

This can be a time of extreme difficulty or extreme blessing depending upon which side of the economic storm people align with.

For Governments and Government Structure

Pray Against:

- Globalization to the point of establishing a new world currency and monetary system.
- Wrong alignments - (ex: aligning U.S. interests with Middle East Concerns).

Pray For:

- Normalization of U.S./China relations (we're dependent upon China to finance the governments $10 trillion National Debt).

- Resumption of world trade.
- That God will use free enterprise and the opening up of businesses in China and India to propagate the gospel to other lands.
- That God will raise up HIS Holy Nation amongst the peoples of the world.
- That God will raise up a new generation of banks, bankers and investment firms to His glory.

For those that which have ears to hear, America and the world are going through an extreme transition, which will likely last over a decade. New methods of business, investments, evangelism and ministry must be developed. Pray to these ends.
