Let us meditate about the importance of setting our heart and soul on the Word of God.

Today's Rhema. Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Loving greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Today let us meditate about the importance of setting our heart and soul on the word of God as in Psalm 119:30 & 31: "I have chosen the way of truth; I have set my heart on your laws. I hold fast to your statutes, O LORD; do not let me be put to shame." We must have a determination to cling to the word of God with all our hearts. Let us meditate about the decision of this psalmist today.

The lessons we can learn from this Psalm:

1. When the Lord sets our hearts free then we will be following the commands of God as in Psalm 119:32, "I run in the path of your commands, for you have set my heart free." – [We must pray to God that He may set our hearts free to follow the word of God.]
2. When God teaches us to understand the word of God, it will be easy for us to follow them until the end as in Psalm 119:33, "Teach me, O LORD, to follow your decrees; then I will keep them to the end." – [We have to pray for our end since those who follow the Lord till the end alone will be honored so with understanding let us have the determination to follow Him.]
3. When God gives us understanding in the word of God, then we can keep the law of God whole-heartedly as in Psalm 119:34, "Give me understanding, and I will keep your law and obey it with all my heart." – [Let us pray for more understanding in the word of God.]
4. When God directs our hearts to love and respect the law of God then it will be easy to follow them as in Psalm 119:35, "Direct me in the path

- of your commands, for there I find delight.” – [We must pray for the direction of the lord in reading and enjoying the word of God.]
5. When God helps us to focus our heart by turning it to read the word of God then we will be free from all selfish ambitions as in Psalm 119:36, “Turn my heart toward your statutes and not toward selfish gain.” – [We must pray to God that He may help us to turn our heart from all selfish things of this world.]
  6. When God helps us to turn away from all worthless things then we can spent more time with the word of God and thus we will preserve our lives as in Psalm 119:37, “Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word.” – [Let us pray that God may help us to turn from all worthless things.]
  7. When God helps us that is because of His righteousness as the psalmist says in Psalm 119:40, “How I long for your precepts! Preserve my life in your righteousness.” – [Our own righteousness is nothing but rages so we must cling to the righteousness of God.]

May the Lord help each one of us to have a love for the word of God and a dedication to follow them in this world. When we keep the commandments of God, then we will earn the love of our generation as in Exodus 20:6, “but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.”

Commitment Prayer: Lord, help me to have my total love and commitment to your commandments. Let me follow them in this world with all my heart. I ask this prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
