Each One! Bless One!

Materialism is a spiritual trap, which many fall into and cannot get out; most do not know that they are trapped because they are fat and believe they are happy.

MATTHEW 12:47-50 (KJ)

Eliminate self. Part Six. Please read Part One, Monday, 2 August, 2010; Part Two, Wednesday, 4 August; Part Three, Monday, 9 August; Part Four, Sunday, 29 August; Part Five, Tuesday, 14 September. Thank you. Father God bless you continually and allow you to mentally and spiritually prepare for His Rapture. Believe it or not, here it comes.

One reason why it is so difficult to get away from focusing on yourself is because the world is centered around promoting self. Think about that for a moment. Here is a good reason not to focus on self so much; focus on how Jesus and how you can do signs, wonders, and miracles. For Christians not to focus on this, suggests that we do not understand who we are—the sons and daughters of Father God, (Romans 8:19; Galatians 4:6; Philemon 2:15; 1 John 3:1) and sisters and brothers to Christ Jesus. If we truly believe that Jesus is coming, then we should be doing the things, which we believe will say to Jesus, “We have been following Your example Master,” in other words—doing miracles, feeding the poor, visiting the elderly, the sick and prisoners, and much, much more.

Jesus is our Example. We must attempt to think like Jesus. We must attempt to do what Jesus did. We must attempt to command sickness, devils, negative emotions, nightmares, inappropriate desires, misdirection, anxieties, and any negative aspect of our lives.

Did Jesus sit around thinking about how to get that white donkey to ride on? Did Jesus walk around thinking how to help the countless people in need? Did He own multiple cars and multiple houses and a wardrobe filled with multiple suits and alligator shoes? Yes, Father God wants us to have a great quality of life, but not decadence and opulence, which leaves out our brothers and sisters—leaving the poor and disenfranchised scattered along God’s beautiful landscape.

Selfish thinking and living makes room for greed, avarice, and a “non-caring” attitude. When we focus only on self, S-E-L-F, we place P-R-I-D-E on the pedestal of life and leave Father God and His Christ watching from below. Why do I say that? Because other people, especially widows and orphans, the poor and the strangers represent Christ in a world society as a whole. Our job is to serve as Christ, where He is, where He exists, and in the people who He created.

Therefore, it is important to seek the direction of Father God, Jesus, Who is the Christ, or the Holy Spirit in our daily lives, and our daily routines, so we can perfect the Will of Father God in our lives. We must follow the Example of Jesus and give our all to others, as we strive to enlighten our spirits, to grow our spirits, and to empower our spirits, so our spirits may exhibit the physical manifestation of signs, wonders, and miracles.

We pray and expect that Father God will intervene in our lives to remove self—S-E-L-F; that is a part of the reason there are trials and tribulations in our lives—to remove anything and everything that is not like Jesus in our lives. You did pray the prayer for Jesus to remove anything not like Him out of your life, right? And you are going to pray the prayer asking Father God to allow signs, wonders, and miracles to flow through your body for the healing of the nations? Do it now!
