Do not quench the subtle movings, motivations, intimations, suggestions, directions, inspirations which the Holy Spirit gives you during the course of your day at work, at play, at school, at church, and at home. Move on it.

“Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good both among yourselves and to all men. Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Quench not the Spirit.”

1 Thessalonians 5:14-19 (KJ)

Mystery of not Quenching the Holy Spirit -- 1. The antichrist does not want you to hear this. Listen, there is a mystery in this one. This happened just the other day when I was speaking on the telephone with my son Marcus. As we were hanging up after 30 plus minutes of talking, he said, “Dad, wait a minute. Let me tell you this. Buy a Scrabble game.” In my spirit I realized that I had received a spiritual gift. A little more conversation ensued then we both hung up.

Immediately when he told me to buy the Scrabble game the Holy Spirit placed in my knowledge that Marcus had been holding that piece of information. The Holy Spirit also let me know that the information which he had been given the responsibility to give to me, almost didn't get to the recipient—me—was meant specifically to bless me and my family. Then the Holy Spirit gave me this devotional as he spoke through Marcus and as the Holy Spirit gave me Knowledge and Utterance. The remainder of our conversation was this devotional in part if not in its entirety.

For those of you who do not have the Holy Spirit, or those who do not believe in the Holy Spirit, and those who do not believe that the Holy Spirit speaks to you: The Blood of Jesus open your spiritual self to receive Christ Jesus' Spiritual Gifts for your life in the name of Jesus: Emmanuel, to His service. Selah. Amen.

“Quenching the Spirit” is a phrase which relates to an individual resisting the Movement of the Holy Spirit in their life. Normally we think of quenching the spirit occurring in church. But it occurs more often outside of church where the Holy Spirit should be most active. (We are outside of church more than inside.) In church we think of quenching the spirit as our attempts in stopping the “Spiritual Event” from happening to us in church causing us to lose our cool.

In church quenching the Holy Spirit can be noted as:

1. Holding back the tears... 2. Clenching the fists... 3. Gritting the teeth....
4. Holding on to the seat or pew... 5. Security around to keep you in the seat and under control... 6. Preacher not making opportunity for the Holy Ghost... 7. Church not recognizing the Holy Spirit exists and is an integral organ in every Christian church service and every Christian's life. 8. Not moving the feet... 9. Not running.... 10. Not opening your mouth when something is trying to say something from you... 11. Not speaking in tongues because it is not permitted... 12. Being ashamed of your moving in the Spirit... 13. Not raising hands or voice in praise...

If a Christian individual or church body do not do the above things, then one can rest assured that one will surely experience the visitation of the Holy Spirit upon their lives. If that is truly their desire. (Don't be scared.)
